

Arizona City/County Management Association 2023 Rachel Hut Bremen Associate's Award for Excellence in Leadership Nomination Form

This award is specifically designed to recognize associate members who contribute to the profession through their organization at an associate member rather than the CEO level. This award is conveyed annually to the successful recipient at ACMA's annual Winter Conference. In 2015 the ACMA Board of Directors renamed the award in memory of Rachel Hut Bremen who was an active ACMA member, serving on the Board of Directors for two terms and volunteering on several committees.

We urge you to give serious thought to your nomination, thank you for your participation.

Please send your nomination by e-mail to:

ACMA

c/o League Staff

info@azmanagement.org

NOMINATIONS MUST BE RECEIVED BY NOVEMBER 21, 2022.

Nomination submitted by:

---

Name / Title / Organization

---

Telephone / E-Mail Address

Nomination Form for the 2023 ACMA Rachel Hut Bremen Associate’s Award for Excellence in Leadership

I hereby nominate _____ of _____ for the 2023 ACMA Rachel Hut Bremen Associate Award for Excellence in Leadership based on the following reasons.

A nominee for this award shall meet a substantial number of the following criteria (or in some other way show exemplary performance or a significant contribution to the local government profession). Please state how the nominee meets each of the criteria below. Cite examples whenever possible. Use additional pages if necessary. Supporting documentation, such as letters of support, will be accepted.

The nomination should demonstrate one or more of the following:

- How the individual successfully worked to address an important issue in the community and/or organization.
- How their contribution has had a positive impact and benefit to the community and/or organization.

Award Criteria

Eligibility Criteria

1. Nominee must meet the criteria of the statement of duties and responsibilities as outlined below: Nominees may be assistants to managers or city, town or county administrative officer; or other persons holding responsible administrative positions in Arizona cities, towns, counties, councils of government, tribes, university faculty, or a person working for a recognized political subdivision.
2. Nominee must be an associate member in good standing with the Arizona City/County Management Association.
3. Nominee must have been in the position full-time for at least one year (not including internships in conjunction with an academic program).
4. Any ACMA member may nominate an associate member for this award; however an active member must endorse the award.

Selection Committee for Rachel Hut Bremen Award for Excellence in Leadership

The Award Selection Committee will select the ACMA Associate award recipient.

Signed,

_____

Name

_____

Title